CFAES Community,

The CFAES DEI Action Council has been hard at work with their first meeting being held on January 11, 2021. Senior Associate Dean Kitchel and I led the meeting off with a charge to the committee which includes providing recommendations, identifying issues, developing goals, and engaging in difficult conversations related to diversity, equity, and inclusion in addition to advising VP Cabinet and myself. We are fortunate to have a wide array of members including undergraduate and graduate students along with faculty and staff from all three of our campuses. If you are interested in seeing who is on the council and to read the full minutes of the first meeting please visit the CFAES DEI web page.

The team broke into seven work groups that met during January and February to identify areas of concern and to brainstorm ways to address the concerns. They include:
- Professional Development
- Recruitment and Retention of Students (Undergraduate and Graduate)
- Departmental Audits
- Diversifying the Curriculum
- Climate Surveys
- Recruitment and Retention of URM Faculty and Staff
- APT and POA Review

The teams started to identify best practices and to draft recommendations that will be shared at the next full council meeting taking place in April.

If you haven’t already, remember to register for the State of the University Address. President Johnson will share her first State of the University Address on Thursday, Feb. 18, during the University Senate meeting that starts at 4 p.m. Register and learn how to view this Zoom event.

By focusing on COVID-19 protections, we have kept our community's positivity rate below 1% so far this semester. The trend is reassuring, but we cannot lose focus on the basic steps needed to maintain the safety of our community, particularly as the virus evolves. The Safe and Healthy Buckeyes website remains the central resource with the latest information about university COVID-19 guidance. More than 850 people joined last week’s town hall to learn more about vaccines and vaccination, and the video of the town hall and FAQs from the event are posted on the vaccine page. The next COVID town hall will be Monday, March 1.

Be well.
Dean Cathann Kress

In-Person Events
Student organizations may resume in-person events of 10 or fewer people on and off campus beginning Friday, February 12. Following all safe and healthy protocols is required, and student organization leaders must submit space reservation requests that include details of planned safety measures. Holding virtual and hybrid activities is encouraged to ensure broad access to activities. The university will monitor positivity rates to determine if additional changes are necessary. To be clear, the student organization exception is limited. All other in-person events and gatherings — including those of 10 people or fewer — are prohibited for the safety of our community. Public events will resume using a phased-in approach as conditions allow.

Racial Justice, Diversity, and Inclusion
Concept papers for the second round of funding for the Seed Fund for Racial Justice are due by 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 26. Successful proposals will utilize research approaches and/or creative ideas help eliminate racism and address its underlying causes and consequences.

Unemployment Fraud
Following the economic impacts of COVID-19, over the past 10 months there has been an uptick in fraudulent unemployment claims nationally. The university continues to see a steady flow of fraudulent claims which have been flagged and reported to the Ohio Department of Jobs and Family Services (ODJFS) Claims Unit who ensures no benefits are paid. Should an employee be victim of a fraudulent claim they will be notified by OSU Benefits and instructed to report this fraudulent activity by utilizing ODJFS’ online form by visiting the Ohio Unemployment Help website and clicking the red “Report Identity Theft” button.

Helpful Resources:
- Ohio State’s EAP provider offers Identify Theft Protection and Recovery Assistance (see flyer here). An EAP consultation may recommend filing a police report regarding the fraudulent claim and/or add any “identity theft protection” service available on your credit and bank cards. We have received positive feedback about this service from fellow employees.
- The Consumer Protection Section of the Ohio Attorney General’s Office contains helpful information on a wide range of topics.

Extended Education information session
One of the most valuable benefits of working at Ohio State is the Faculty and Staff Tuition Assistance Plan.
The plan pays for eligible employees to take courses either as part of a degree-granting program or through Extended Education. Register for our online information session, scheduled from noon-1 p.m. Feb. 16. Extended Education staff will cover what extended education is, how to apply and answer your questions. We’ll also cover upcoming changes to the tuition assistance plan for summer and autumn 2021. Read more.

CFAES Spirit of the Land-Grant Award
Nominations are now open for the 2021 CFAES Spirit of the Land-Grant Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize an individual who supports, exemplifies or creates opportunities that embody the land grant mission. The award celebrates the connection between our CFAES values and our land-grant DNA. Therefore, nominees should have a clear record of supporting, exemplifying or creating opportunities around one or more of the following land-grant DNA areas: Translational Research, Collaboration and Engagement, Students as Co-creators, Lifespan Learning and Future Perspective. The award is open to CFAES faculty, staff, graduate and undergraduate students, alumni and external partners (including partners across campus and outside of the university). Nominations are due February 19, 2021. For more information on the award and the nomination form, please visit: https://students.cfaes.ohio-state.edu/spirit-of-the-land-grant

Analog Phone System Update
The OCIO will be completing the Columbus campus analog phone system retirement within the next 60 days. You may recall the announcement from this past autumn where any remaining analog phone numbers were moved to Skype for Business. By Tuesday, March 30, all remaining Columbus campus phones will be using digital voice over internet protocol technology (VOIP). The analog phone line retirement is for the Columbus campus only. Any analog lines remaining that are not resolved from the above work by March 19 will be removed in preparation to unplug the old equipment at the end of March. If you believe you have an existing analog phone line that has been missed, please contact IT project manager, Dietrich Eubank. for assistance as any analog lines that we do not have final decisions on will be turned off.

Workshop: Engaging Students in Online Collaboration
Don’t get stuck in a discussion board rut! This workshop from the Office of Distance Education and eLearning (ODEE), on Feb. 18 2-3:30 p.m., will spark your creativity for other ways to engage students in collaborative learning in online spaces. By understanding the elements of collaboration that drive learning, you’ll identify opportunities in your own course, create an activity, and begin using the CarmenCanvas tools that support student collaboration.
