CFAES community,

I hope everyone’s new year is off to a great start and I know we hope many of the challenges of 2020 will soon be behind us. Over the holidays, I spent time reflecting on things I am grateful for and many of them come back to our CFAES community.

I am grateful to our faculty and staff for embracing technology and safety protocols to continue the vital work of our college, for shifting to online learning and allowing our students to continue their education, and for your persistence while balancing competing priorities with family needs and concerns of your loved one’s health and safety.

With more than 1,000 active projects managed by OSP, almost 200 capacity funded projects and over $50 million dollars in competitive research grants, our research community sustained research activities, on all three of our campuses (Columbus, CFAES Wooster, and Statewide) to find real-world solutions to the grand challenges facing Ohio and beyond.

I am thankful for our OSU Extension professionals on-campus and around the state for their innovation and creativity educating constituents, minimizing COVID-19’s impact on agricultural production, protecting our food supply chain, and building connections with youth.

I am appreciative of our student’s flexibility, patience and resiliency as they spent most of the year in imperfect and unusual learning environments. Our students handled each change and challenge with perseverance and determination.

Much of what we achieved in this challenging year would not have been possible without our generous stakeholders, alumni, donors and partners who helped raise a record-breaking $40.82 million for student scholarships, research support, emerging priorities, and more. One example of that is an anonymous gift, which created a $100,000 Student Emergency Fund, helping our CFAES Wooster students with needs beyond tuition which arose from the COVID-19 pandemic. That same donor provided an additional $400,000 worth of support to enhance our students’ ability to be prepared to enter the workforce, aligning industry needs with our efforts.

In addition, in late December we learned that the additional 5% reduction to our Extension and Agricultural research lines (after the initial 5% reduction in FY2020) enacted by the State of Ohio this past October would be eliminated, restoring our funding to 1st Quarter levels for Extension and Agricultural research. We also received word that in the State Capital request, we received $6M for the Fisher Auditorium renovation.

I also am grateful that as a community, we continue to affirm our CFAES Principles of Community and our conviction that racism and inequality have no place in CFAES. I appreciate the many thoughtful discussions, openness to listening to one another, and actions taken to ensure we not only affirm, but live our principles.

As we conclude our sesquicentennial year, it’s clear that our cornerstone college continues its traditions of innovative scholarship, a “students-first” philosophy, and deep and meaningful engagement with our communities. I am grateful for your dedication to our college, our university, and our state and the critical mission we are all dedicated to serving – we sustain life. Together as Buckeyes.
I wish you and your loved ones a happy and healthy New Year.

Dean Cathann Kress

CFAES Virtual Holiday Event Recording
If you weren’t able to join us for the CFAES Virtual Holiday event, Sustaining Life and Laughter - Finding Literal Joy in our Virtual Lives, the recording is now available at: https://youtu.be/9QluMUuHliM

USDA Sexual Harassment Notification Process
USDA’s National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) is committed to ensuring equal opportunity in all its programs and activities. NIFA prohibits harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment at institutions who are recipients of federal funding and in any federally assisted program or activity. Read more.

Extension of Vacation Accrual Exception
Many faculty and staff have not been able to use vacation time in 2020 and risk losing vacation accrued that exceeds the maximum carryover. In appreciation for all that our employees have done the decision was made to extend the exception to the maximum carryover to the end of the current fiscal year, June 30, 2021. This extension provides employees flexibility to use accrued vacation over the maximum until their anniversary date that occurs after July 1, 2021. For more information you can visit HR COVID-19 FAQ page under Leave, questions 5 and 6 or you can speak to your HR Consultant.

Statewide Curfew Extended
Governor DeWine has extended the 10 p.m.-5 a.m. statewide curfew through Jan. 23. Read more information about impacts to students, faculty and staff on the Safe and Healthy Buckeyes website. Read more.

Travel Restrictions Extended
Following the public health guidance of local, state and federal officials, the university has extended the current restrictions on domestic and international travel through June 30, 2021. More information will be shared later this week or early next week about an exception process.
Continuation of Hiring Pause Procedures
As we transition to WorkDay, hiring managers are now able to directly create hiring requisitions. However, an approved exception is still required and should be obtained prior to creating a requisition. Please follow the hiring pause exception procedures and contact your HR consultant with any questions.

Workday Resources
More information on the WorkDay transition, job aids, training, and links to services can be found in the Administrative Resource Center (ARC).
- For HR support contact: CFAESHR@osu.edu
- For Finance support, contact your fiscal officer. If additional support is needed, contact: Desiree Lutsch.11@osu.edu or Lisa Simpson.613@osu.edu

Encourage Student Use of The Ohio State: Wellness App
The Ohio State: Wellness app is a resource created to help students build well-being skills, understand their options and connect to care more easily. Sharing the app with the students you instruct, advise or work with at the start of the semester can be helpful encouragement for them to explore well-being resources early and get support if they need it. The Wellness app can be downloaded using this link.

CFAES DEI Newsletter
The CFAES Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion is pleased to announce that they will be circulating a monthly newsletter starting on Wednesday, January 13, 2021. The newsletter will feature upcoming events, information on professional development webinars, and resources to help support the CFAES community in their efforts to cultivate a welcoming and equitable environment for people from all walks of life. If you would like to sign up for the DEI newsletter, please send an email to CFAES-DEI@osu.edu to be added to the mailing list.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Activities
- Join over 1,000 Buckeyes in honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and make Monday, January 18, 2021 a day on instead of a day off. Come connect with your fellow Buckeyes and engage in service with the greater Columbus community. Learn more.
- CFAES is proud to sponsor the 36th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Breakfast - the largest event of its kind in the United States honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Learn more about the flagship event on MLK Jr. Day, the national holiday commemorating Dr. King the fallen civil rights leader.

National Day of Racial Healing
CFAES will be joining the W.K. Kellogg Foundation’s National Day of Racial Healing taking place on January 19,2021. CFAES will engage around the topic of racial healing in a variety of ways starting with a facilitated discussion of the movie 13th from 9:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. In 13th, filmmaker Ava DuVernay addresses the history of racial inequality in the United States, focusing on the fact that the nation’s prisons are disproportionally filled with African Americans. 13th is available free on YouTube. Participants are asked to view the film ahead of the discussion. The discussion of 13th will be followed by a presentation on The Inner Work of Racial Justice from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. followed by panel discussion on Racial Healing from 1:15 - 2:45 p.m. The culminating event at 3:00 p.m. will be viewing the live stream of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation National Day of Racial Healing. Registration is required for all events. We encourage faculty, staff, and students to share their ideas for racial healing on social media using the #HowWeHeal and #CFAESHOWEHEAL. Bucks for Charity
Thank you to everyone who supported the CFAES Bucks for Charity campaign. The total raised by CFAES was $31,301 surpassing our goal by nearly $10,000. Buckeyes have a great reputation of paying forward, and we are continuing that legacy by giving back to the central Ohio community. Together, we made a significant contribution to the organizations that support our families, friends, and neighbors. Thank you again for your support of Bucks for Charity.

Resources for Teaching and Learning
The Drake Institute for Teaching and Learning and the Office of Distance Education and eLearning continue to be primary resources for instructors as you prepare for spring. The Keep Teaching "Get Started" page has been refreshed for spring semester: https://keepteaching.osu.edu/get-started.
Please utilize Keep Teaching and the Drake Institute websites for information about upcoming events and current resources about all manner of topics to support teaching and learning. Upcoming events include:

- At 2 p.m. Wednesday (Jan. 6), the Setting Up Your Course in Carmen workshop will explore best practices for sharing syllabi, using Gradebook, posting resources and communicating with students online.
- At 2 p.m. Thursday (Jan. 7), the Supporting Physical and Virtual Environments in Hybrid and In-Person Classes workshop will focus on how to address challenges for instructors and students in multi-modal courses and resources that support in-person and hybrid instruction.
- Throughout the day on Friday (Jan. 8), the Drake Institute will host a number of workshops during New Faculty Welcome that are open to the university community. These include sessions on Enriching Your Clinical Instructional Practices, Carmen Common Sense, Inclusive Teaching: Foundational Principles, Inclusive Teaching: Responding to -isms in the Classroom and Integrating Active Learning in Large Lecture Courses.
- At 1 p.m. Friday (Jan. 8), Ohio State faculty are invited to learn about preparing for promotion and tenure. Vice Provost Helen Malone will share an overview of the process, including what documentation is needed.

New Rich Content Editor, Assignment Enhancements Coming to CarmenCanvas for Spring 2021
While you are preparing for the upcoming spring semester, you will notice a few feature enhancements and changes within the learning management system. The most prominent change will be the new Rich Content Editor (RCE). Along with this change, enhancements will be enabled for student assignments and there will be slight changes to the Gradebook and the Upload/Record Media button in the RCE.
